Introduction

This white paper is a description of a community-base project that gives all inclusiveness to everyone and to enable cashless payment, debt management giving more priority to African nations via a secure blockchain connection with provenance.

In the future, inu cardano (IC) can be use to pay debts own by African countries by a more fair lending mechanism that will encourage sustainable development in that nation.

Introduction

IC can be used to buy goods online with crypto including products on Jumia Africa, Amazon.com, ebay, Aliexpress etc.

Inu Cardano is a decentralized deflationary crypto currency that runs on the Binance Smart Chain. IC is an all-in one platform where investors profit from a finite number of ways like staking, lending, burning leading to reduction in number of tokens in circulating supply but increase in demand

Our goal is to revolutionize the market with a more sincere, transparent, accessible and fair globally financial system with a decentralized crypto wallet in partnership with Paystack, Chipper cash and Kuda bank unlike other conventional platforms, our mechanism allows investors and lenders to generate more value to their investment.
